Fair enough. We look forward to the meeting and working with you going forward on PROMESA matters.

When you have a moment, could you send me Natalie's official contact info?

Kent,
Thanks for trying to make the meeting possible. As soon as I have the date for their next visit to DC, we can try again.

Mr. Carrión and Ms. Jaresko could continue on for drinks after your meeting but not dinner as they have another commitment. I suggest you coordinate it together tomorrow in case something else has come up, since the whole schedule has so many moving parts right now.

Thanks again,

Maí Vizcarrondo

Thx for the updated info. Just an FYI: Secretary Mnuchin will be out of town tomorrow and unable to meet with Natalie and Jose. He looks forward to the next opportunity when they will be in town. So, let's leave the meeting for 4:30pm. We have confirmed that Senior Counselor to the Secretary, Craig Phillips, and Acting Undersecretary for Domestic Finance, Dave Lebryk, are planning to join the meeting.

Craig and I are also available afterwards, if Natalie and Jose would like to continue the discussion over drinks and/or dinner tomorrow evening. Let us know if that works for them.

Thanks for your note. Let's plan on 4:30pm Tues 4/18. I will definitely be available and I will find out about the Secretary's schedule to see if a brief intro might work at some point in the day. Alternatively, one of his senior advisors may be available.

I will need Natalie/Jose's info for security clearance into the building. Pls send me their SSNs and driver's license or US passport numbers.

I'll be back to you asap to confirm if the Secretary is available.

Kent,

Hi! Ms. Natalie Jaresko asked me to contact you in order to schedule a meeting with you and hopefully the Secretary or his advisors during her short trip to DC next week. She will only be there on Tuesday, April 18 with Mr. Carrión. The best time is 4:30 pm but she wants to make this work so let me know and I will rearrange the schedule accordingly.

Best regards,

Rosemarie 'Mai' Vizcarrondo

Thank you Daleep.

Natalie-

I understand that you may be in Washington DC next week. If so, please let me know your schedule. I will make myself available as necessary. I would also be glad to try to arrange a meeting with the Secretary or one of his advisors, although, as you can imagine, their schedules are very fluid in these early days of the Administration.

Either way, you can reach me at this email address or by cell: [Redacted for PII]

Dear Natalie,

As discussed, I'm connecting you with Kent Hiteshew -- Treasury's lead on Puerto Rico almost from the beginning of the USG's engagement in the economic crisis. Kent also knows all the key players involved, and I'm sure he'd be happy to help you navigate the personalities and complex range of issues you will encounter.

My best to both of you.

Daleep
